RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this fity, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevaging are called upon to perform more labor without remuners are called upon to perform more labor without remunera-tion, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of charity and religious advertisement, and com-munications, tributes of respect, obituaries, &c. &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, im-poses upon them a burden so onerous, that they feel called apon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the par-ties more presented. publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the parties more namediately interested. In this they are but following the example of the press in other cities, impelied by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united together in a mutual agreement, upon the to lowing specified terms or the publication of these as well as every sort of regular business advertising.

a Great Pain Killer.

The under-igned, having repeatedly been solicited to make consignments of the Patent Camphor Wash Mixture, has concluded to sell no more county rights in this State, but will in future have the Improved Camphor Wash Mixture put up and distributed throughout this State (except in the counties where the rights have been disposed of and in the State of Alabama. And that he may be enabled and in the state of ancients. And the may be enacted more effectivally to make this arrangement, he proposes to divide the patent for Tennessee and Alabama into 1,00 shares, one fourth to be retained, and the remainder—750 shares—will be offered for sale. A person remitting ten dollars will have one share in the Patent, to run fourteen sears from July 11, 1864, and will be at the same time investing also five dollars to be used in the purchase of the ingredients, advertising and the necessary expenditure of the means to prepare and distribute the Mixture for sale.— Consignments will be made to shareholders, (who may request it,) and to no other persons, to the amount of their remittance. And they will be allowed a commission of S3 per cent on their sales, and also their proportion of the Annual exhibit of sales will be made, and dividends of the months, a pair of your "Brusilian Pebble epectacies," and believing they are the only kind I have ever seen capable of completely restoring vision which has been impaired, to its primitive perfection, I take pleasure in recommending them Annual exhibit of sales will be made, and dividents of the profits remitted to each shareholder. No debts will be contracted, nor will the Company be responsibly for any, as the business will be conducted upon the cash system.

Any of those who have purchased patents for counties in this State, can have the privilege of exchanging their rights for share at the prices they have paid. This exchange will be made at the cost of the Patentee.

It is desirable to have at least one or more active share-balders in such counts in the States named. Subscriptions primitive perfe-to the public. Nasawata, July 25, 1805.

We, the undersigned, have used for some time Mr. J. St.,
